Hi Sergeant Duncan,

My supervisors say we won't be sharing the photo of Wrede with other officers during the Medal of Valor ceremony. They say it is not KRDO's policy to share that kind of information unless there is a serious public safety issue.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]

FYI – If you take a look at her email. She talks about another post saying "damn Terrorist"? I am not sure where she got that from unless it was one of the thousands of comments and one she linked to his account.

Hi,
I have several questions regarding comments on Facebook, which KRDO reports were made by a CSPD sergeant.

- Can you confirm that the Facebook profile, Steven Eric, belonged to Sgt. Keith Wrede?
- Can you confirm that an internal investigation into Sgt. Wrede is underway?
- What comment can you provide in regard to the comments made, including "KILL EM ALL" on KRDO's live video of the demonstrators on I-25 and another post referring to the Black Lives Matter movement as a "damn Terrorist"?

Thank you,
Olivia

Hi [REDACTED],

Following our conversation over the phone today, I'm adding a little more information and pictures.

Thursday night, we received an anonymous tip that a Facebook account claiming to belong to a CSPD officer that commented on a KRDO's facebook livestream from Tuesday night when protesters blocked off I-25 at Bijou.

The Facebook account was under the name of "Steven Eric" commented "Kill 'em all" and "Kill them all" in reference to the protesters in the livestream.

The anonymous viewer claimed that the "Steven Eric" account actually belonged to CSPD Officer Keith Wrede.

According to a 2019 CSPD post on Facebook, it looks like an Officer Keith Wrede was a Medal of Valor recipient. We wanted to confirm whether or not Officer Keith Wrede has an online account under the name of "Steven Eric" that made those comments on our livestream of the I-25 protest. If so, does the Colorado Springs Police Department have any comment about the incident?

Below I am attaching screenshots of the comments during our livestream.

Best regards,
