

Transparency Matters LLC Recommendations

Based on the findings of the research team's comprehensive and independent assessment of CSPD's use of force policies, practices, and official data, as well as additional data collected from community members and CSPD officers, Transparency Matters provided recommendations for appropriate changes to use of force policies, training, supervision, and data collection.

