

Minutes - Public Art Commission of the Pikes Peak Region

Tuesday, Jan, 2018 from 4 - 5 p.m.

Pikes Peak Room, 2nd floor City Hall, 107 N. Nevada Ave., Colorado Springs

Chair: unfilled

In Attendance: Kate Perdoni, Vincent Coleman, Marta LaCombe, Pam Sawyer, Lisa Cross, Sarah Stonestreet, Matt Mayberry, Tom Strand, Marta Lacombe, Ted Skroback
Guests: Kay Esmiol, Cindy ???

1. Call to Order 4:03pm
2. Public Comment Introductions. Vote on the chair of the commission.
3. Items for Discussion

Fannie Mae Duncan Sculpture (Lori Kiplinger Pandy, sculptor)

Fannie Mae ran the Cotton Club (closed 1975). "Everybody Welcome" Will be at the Pikes Peak Center on the path leading to the PPC. City owned sculpture on county land. City would maintain the sculpture. Funky Little Theater is producing the Fannie Mae play in March or April? The process will be blogged for students and the public to see. Someone to buy a maquette for North middle school and Palmer H.S.

Proposed sculpture for Bancroft Park. Michael Garman sculpture. Artistic design is almost complete, but the money still has to be raised.

4. Member announcements April or May for Budget directives. Public Art Master planning? PLDO for art from new developments. We can go through the mayor who makes the budget or we can go through the city council after the budget is approved. "Civic treasures"

5. Adjournment 4:57