Questions/Answers

1. At the very least can the bonding company provide a letter with the executed bonds that state these bonds are not executed without a signed contract between the owner and contractor?

Yes this is acceptable; the apparent awardee would need to be able to turn this around quickly.

2. The RFP states that the proposal page length is to be 25 pages, but it doesn't clarify if the DBE attachments and exhibits are a part of the 25 pages or if those are outside of the 25 pages. Can you clarify?

The DBE attachments are needed at the time of submitting the proposal and the do NOT count against the 25 page limit.
