

By law, if you are a victim of the crimes listed below, you may be eligible to receive a free copy of your initial case report.

What crimes are covered by the Colorado Victim Rights Act?

- Murder; Manslaughter; Criminally Negligent Homicide
- Assault in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd degree
- Vehicular Homicide; Vehicular Assault
- Failure to stop at the scene of an accident that results in death or serious bodily injury of another person
- Careless driving resulting in death of another person
- Menacing
- Kidnapping in the 1st or 2nd degree
- Sexual Assault; Unlawful Sexual Contact
- Indecent Exposure
- Posting a private image for harassment or for pecuniary gain
- Sexual Assault on a Child; Sexual assault on a child by one in a position of trust
- Incest, Aggravated Incest
- Child Abuse
- Invasion of privacy for sexual gratification
- Human Trafficking
- Pimping of a child
- Child Prostitution; Inducement of child prostitution; Patronizing a prostituted child; Soliciting for child prostitution
- Sexual Exploitation of children, Procurement of a child for sexual exploitation
- Violation of protection order issued against a person charged with sexual assault
- Violation of protection order issued against a person charged with stalking
- Robbery, Aggravated Robbery
- First Degree Burglary
- Crimes against at-risk adults or at-risk juveniles
- Crimes involving Domestic Violence
- Stalking
- Bias-motivated crime
- Retaliation against a victim, witness, judge, juror, or prosecutor
- Tampering with a victim or witness
- Intimidation and aggravated intimidation of a victim or witness
- Crimes that include: attempt, conspiracy, solicitation, or accessory to a crime

For a complete list of applicable crimes refer to Colorado Revised Statutes 24-4.1-302.

Please call 719-444-7777 to speak with a member of the Victim Advocacy Unit to request a free copy of an initial case report.